

ROANOKE TIMES.

DAILY AND WEEKLY Independent Democratic paper to the material and political of Roanoke and Southwest.

DO YOU ADVERTISE?
Discontinue an advertisement, in Wamamaker, "is like taking your sign. If you want to do as you must let the public know as soon as possible of doing without clerks as without sign."

PRODUCTIVE OF GOOD.

visit of the New England Press to Virginia, is proving productive of a great deal of good to the State.

Nearly all of the editors who the trip were from Massachusetts, the papers in the smaller cities have been filled in the last few days with descriptive matter about the Dominion, its people, its cities, its great industrial progress the State is making.

The trip was a revelation to many, to a vast majority of the editors, and the information they imparted to their readers, can not be overestimated. It gave the people a more accurate and comprehensive idea of affairs in Virginia than they ever had.

The people of the two sections need know each other more thoroughly. They need to know the business, the manners and customs, and the motives which animate the political action. Such knowledge can be obtained best by actual contact. The New England editors who came to Virginia, kept the photographic plate of their minds thoroughly satisfied, and went back and reported their impressions fairly, (and all of them, whose articles we have seen did) formed good service, and did work that will be beneficial to both Massachusetts and Virginia.

It would be a good idea if the Virginia editors could visit Massachusetts.

UNFIT TO SPEAK.

Proof that Speaker Reed is entirely unfit to participate in the House and that he can never receive the endorsement of both parties, as did Mr. ARLISLE, for the fairness of his rulings continues to accumulate.

As Speaker he allows nothing to and in his way to prevent him from making the course he desires, and on Thursday the House found it necessary to rebuke him for referring the silver coinage bill, as taken from the Senate, to the committee on coinage-weights and measures without seeing what disposition the members of that body might wish to make of it.

Reed is opposed to free coinage and the bold step was taken to throttle the measure. There is every indication, however, that he will be thwarted in his purpose.

THE RACE QUESTION.

President INGALLS of the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, thinks that the wonderful industrial development that is taking place in Virginia will settle the race question in this State, at least. He says with a good deal of truth:

"I have seen in the last year a glimmer of light that is growing stronger and which I believe in the next three years will solve this question. The relief is coming from the 'boomer.' With the mines that are being opened in the State, with the milk that are being erected, with the villages that are being built up, with the immigration that is pouring in here from the North and West, the proportion of the colored vote will decrease and it will become relatively so small shortly that it will no longer be a menace to the property and good government of the State."

HARRISON AND HAYES.

The news comes from the White House that President HARRISON has decided that under no consideration will he allow himself to be a candidate for re-election and that at the expiration of his term of office in March, 1893, he will retire to private life in Indianapolis.

If the statement is true, it is perhaps well that the president has reached such a philosophical conclusion. He would have no chance whatever in the race if he were to enter and he will pair exceedingly well with HAYES.

THE RADFORD ENTERPRISE.

The initial number of the Radford Enterprise has been received. The editor is Mr. W. L. WARDE, of Dedham, Mass. The paper is a semi-weekly. Its typographical appearance is neat and its matter is well arranged and printed on good paper. Its editorial columns contain a most sensible article on news and advertising space being merchantable commodities, and it is no exaggeration to say that the paper gives every indication that it will prove extremely creditable to Radford. The Times welcomes Mr. WARDE to this section.

CONGRESSMAN McADOO has written a letter to his party managers at Hoboken, New Jersey, denying that he intended to remove to Virginia and run for Congress from the Old Dominion, and that settles the question.

The Ocean Shore Park Hotel, Virginia Beach, in Princess Anne county, Virginia, at the ocean terminus of the Norfolk and Virginia Beach Railroad offers to the public a long and wide view of the ocean, and a most beautiful view of the beach. NOTHING SUCCEEDS LIKE SUCCESS.

The reason RADAM'S MICROBE KILLER is the most wonderful medicine, is because it has never failed in any instance, no matter what the disease, from Leprosy to the simplest disease known to the human system.

The scientific men of today claim and prove that every disease is

exterminates the microbes and drives them out of the system, and when that is done you cannot have an ache or pain. No matter what the disease, whether simple case of malaria fever or a combination of diseases, we cure them all at the same time, as we treat all diseases constitutionally.

Asthma, Consumption, Catarrh, Bronchitis, Rheumatism, Kidney and Liver Disease, Chills and Fever, Female Troubles, in all its forms, and, in fact, every disease known to the human system.

Beware of Fraudulent Imitations. See that our Trade Mark (same as above) appears on each jug.
